Life is for living, having fun and being happy. That's what everyone wants for their family and it's what we want too. Right from the start we've aimed to do business in a way that will help to spread a little happiness, to our customers, our suppliers, our local community, our farmers and of course their animals. And because we've chosen our suppliers and delivery methods very carefully, we've also taken away the worry of buying tasty fresh produce on-line.

Please note that all weights are approximate and allow for slight natural variations in each cut of meat.
